Helping Your Community Get Back to Work: Job Searching with the Missouri Division of Workforce Development
Tuesday, May 17, 2011 at 9:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m.

Description: Join Lisa Johnson, Manager of Skill Development at the Missouri Division of Workforce Development, in a webinar on May 17 at 9:00 and 1:00 p.m. In “Helping Your Community Get Back to Work: Job Searching with the Missouri Division of Workforce Development”, Johnson will offer information about the services provided by Missouri Career Source Centers. She will also take us on an online tour of newly redesigned MissouriCareerSource.com, and new products and software like Optimal Resume, available to all Missourians who register with the career center. Discussion will focus on ways in which libraries and career centers can partner to help people in the community find jobs. Reserve your space today by registering online at: <http://www.sos.mo.gov/library/development/>. Spaces are limited to 30 participants per webinar, so reserve your seat now by clicking on your time of choice below. Webinar links will be sent out by May 10.
